

SFIC: New President & Committee Members

The Singapore Furniture Industries Council (SFIC) announced the appointment of Andrew Ng as the President of the SFIC and the office bearers on the new Executive Committee for 2006/2008. Mr Ng, who is the Managing Director of Kiat Lee Industries Pte Ltd will be taking over from James Koh, Deputy Chairman and Managing Director of Koda Ltd, who served two full terms as SFIC's President. Mr Ng will spearhead the Council's mission of establishing Singapore as a premier furniture hub.

An experienced furniture veteran, Mr Ng, joined the SFIC in 1990 and saw to the successful implementation of several key Council initiatives. Mr Ng also spearheaded several SFIC industry development programmes and had a hand in initiating numerous networking events for the local furniture industry. Currently at the helm of the upcoming International Furniture Centre project, Mr Ng is also a known personality amongst the Asian and international furniture network.

"I am indeed honoured to be part of this dynamic team. The new executive committee will not only continue to diligently pursue SFIC's goals and objectives, but will also carry on the good work implemented by the outgoing committee. With newer technologies coming on-stream by the day and a highly competitive global landscape, it is imperative that we adopt clearly defined strategies and a creative approach to ensure continuous growth for our industry. My committee will continue to play a significant role in promoting the interests of our members and the Singapore furniture industry to ensure that we stay ahead of the curve in the global furniture marketplace," said Mr Andrew Ng.
