SINGAPORE — The Singapore Furniture Inds. Council (SFIC) will be leading a group to the Cologne furniture fair being held Jan. 19 to 24 in Germany.

Sixteen companies representing the Mozaic brand will occupy nearly 10,000 square feet in four locations at the show. The Mozaic brand brings together a collection of successful Singapore furniture companies, offering a diverse portfolio of consumer and business furniture.

Companies participating in the Mozaic showing at Cologne include Air Division, Eurosa Furniture, Haleywood Inds., Home of Homes Furniture, HTL International Holdings, Koda, Lorenzo International, MLC Marketing, Richin Furniture Décor, Star Furniture, Suncoast Sitra, Univonna, Urban Foundry, Ivena International, Wayco International and Wood Brothers.

The Singapore Pavilion will be located in Hall 2.2 (Basic) while several Singapore Mozaic companies also will be exhibiting in Halls 6.1 (Comfort), 8 (Smart) and 11.1 (Pure).

Singapore officials said two companies to watch are Air Division and Urban Foundry. Air Division is known for its contemporary, urban designs. At the show, Urban Foundry will be launching its new brand, Foundry, a collection created by a group of young designers from Singapore, Japan, Finland, Germany, Spain and Serbia, with pieces inspired by individual designers' home cities.

Companies that are showing environmentally friendly and socially responsible furniture include Haleywood Inds., Home of Homes Furniture and Koda. Haleywood, a member of the Forest Stewardship Council, will exhibit its solid-wood furniture. Home of Homes will display a collection created from tropical hardwood recycled from decommissioned boats. And Koda will present its new range of contemporary furniture made from responsibly forested, renewable bamboo and eco-board.
